GRANT SERVICES

We help organizations secure funding by combining strategic thinking, strong writing, and capacity-building to support competitive, high-quality applications.

We have helped organizations access hundreds of thousands of dollars in grant funding across private, state, and federal sources.

Whether building grant readiness, writing applications, or strengthening internal capacity, our approach is practical, collaborative, and grounded in long-term success.

Grant Readiness Evaluation & Support

Assessments and infrastructure-building support that strengthen systems, documentation, and processes, positioning organizations to pursue funding opportunities with confidence.

Full-Service Grant Writing

End-to-end grant development for opportunities of all sizes, including research, narrative development, budgets, and submission tailored to funder priorities.

Application Coaching & Review

Interactive coaching and detailed review for staff-led applications, focused on strengthening clarity, alignment, and competitiveness while building internal grant-writing skills.

Grant Prospecting

Focused research to identify and prioritize funding opportunities aligned with mission, readiness, and strategic goals.
